H. S. BAND WILL FURNISH MUSIC FOR ASSOCIATION

MUSICIANS FOR PLACES IN BAND WILL BE CHOSEN FROM LIST SENT TO MR. GARDNER.

A district High School Band is being organized to furnish for the Northwest Missouri District Teachers' Association the program for Thursday evening, October 20, and music for the Friday morning session. The arrangements are in charge of Mr. Gardner, of the Music Department, who sent out letters last week to the superintendents of the district asking their cooperation.

The band will be composed of approximately sixty pieces, chosen from the various high school bands of the district. Selection will be made from such high schools as maintain bands of sixteen pieces or more. The superintendent of each school is asked to submit a list of musicians in his school with the ranking given by the leader of the band. When the selections are made, music will be sent each high school so that the entering student may be familiar with the compositions to be used.

The complete band will have but two rehearsals. The first will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, October 20, and the second at 1 o'clock the same day. Chairs will be assigned October 8, and no name submitted after that date will be considered.

The Association will be host to the high school students who play in the band. It will provide dinner and supper Thursday, lodging Thursday night, and breakfast Friday morning. In addition, it will provide lodging Wednesday night and breakfast Thursday morning for those who find it necessary to come to Maryville on Wednesday night in order to be present at the rehearsal Thursday morning. Lodging and meals must be taken at places assigned by the committee in charge. Transportation and other individual expenses are to be met by the student or the school sending him. Each student will furnish his own music rack, but the music will be furnished by the Association.

H. S. STUDENTS HAVE INTERESTING EXHIBIT

The exhibit, now on display in the west display case on second floor, is not only attractive, but is evidence of the proficiency of the high school vocational and general home economics girls.

The background of the case is decorated with sheaves of wheat and well-laden stalks of corn. On the shelf are arranged various raw fruits and vegetables as well as the canned products that the girls prepared in the laboratory periods.

Autumn leaves are scattered here and there to lend color and attraction. By way of contrast to modern glass containers, one of the girls brought old-fashioned stone jars that were used by her grandmother in preservation of foods.

The vocational home economics class is taught by Ruth Kramer. The students in the class are: Ada May Shell, Margaret Ann Lambert, Blondena O'Banion and Helen Marjorie Job.

Maude Qualls teaches the general home economics girls. Her pupils are: Alferetta Latimer, Dorothy Shell, Irene Gallagher, Mabel Cooper and Gertrude Jolly.

GROUP FROM HERE ATTENDS CONCLAVE

LOCAL CHAPTER CONDUCTS MODEL INITIATION—MISS ANTHONY IS NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

Kappa Omicron Phi, national professional home economics fraternity, of which Alpha Chapter is located in the Northwest Missouri State Teachers' College, held its biennial conclave in Winfield, Kansas, September 22-24. Representatives from the College were: Miss Anthony, chairman of the Department of Home Economics and instructor in Clothing, Miss Blanshan, instructor in Foods, Maude Qualls, president of Alpha Chapter, Ruth Kramer, secretary, and Lucile Leeson, treasurer.

After driving through a storm to Lawrence, Kansas, and traveling in detours the rest of the way to Winfield, Alpha's delegation finally arrived Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, to be immediately rushed away at four o'clock to attend the first business meeting of the delegates in Richardson Hall at the administration building of Southwestern College. Words of greeting were extended by Dr. Frank E. Mossman, president of the College, the response to which was given by Miss Anthony. Following this, the business session was held.

The meeting Thursday evening took place at the rustic country home of Dr. Young, a resident of Arkansas City. Dr. Young has traveled extensively through all parts of the world, and in his country home, which he calls "The Wigwam," he keeps all the curios he has collected in the course of his journeys. Among some of his objects of interest are, a bell that once belonged to Abraham Lincoln, the wheel of a covered wagon that went to the Gold Rush of '49, some small stone gods that were dug up in Central America, and many American Indian curios. While the visitors were assembled here, Mr. Harry Kurdian gave an interesting discussion on Oriental rugs. Mr. Kurdian is well known as an authority on Oriental rugs and has published literature concerning them.

DOG-CATCHER CHASES RUSHEES TO POUND

Consternation that might have reigned among the twenty-four College women who received notice last week that the dog-catcher was coming to take them to the pound on Wednesday evening, September 28, was turned to delight that evening when they found themselves the guests of Alpha Epsilon Chapter of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority at the home of Mrs. Harry Mutz, an alumna of the sorority.

The entertainment of the evening centered around the motive of "Dogs," and many choice "bones" were provided as prizes during the evening, which was spent in playing Canine Bridge. Erma Walker received high score.

Serving was from small tables, each centered by a miniature dog-kennel, from which the guests drew the favors of the evening. The sorority colors of purple and white were used in all the arrangements.

The rushees who were invited to the party were Charlotte Leet, Mildred McMullin, Dorothy Sandison, Roberta Cook, Helen Kramer, Virginia Coe, Jean Montgomery, and Faye Sutton, Maryville; Laura Prebe Roseberry, Kansas City; Marceline Cooper, Denver, Colorado; Janet and Dortha Davis, Dearborn; Genevieve and Barbara Wilson, St. Louis; Mary Louise Kettelman, Platte City; Erma Walker, Bigelow; Margaret Humphreys, Laredo; Velma Cass and Ellen Johnson, Shenandoah, Iowa; Pauline Rush, Bedford, Iowa; and Mary Catherine McKendry, St. Joseph. Others who attended the party were the Miss Hudson and Miss Hettie Anthony, sponsors; Miss Bess Todd, Mrs. Harry Mutz, Mrs. Fred Garten, and Marjorie and Neva Bruce, alumnae; and Emma Ruth Bellows, Helen Morford, Edna Keplar, Lucy Lloyd, Evelyn Perry, Ruth Miller, Nadean Wooderson, Dortha Gates, Esther McMurry, Virginia Miller, Lucile Shelby and Helen Busby, actives.

Buel L. Morris, of Rea, who attended the College the last two years and is now teaching at Eureka No. 12 near Fillmore, spent the week-end in Maryville.

Eula Marie Dickerson, who teaches a rural school near Graham, was in Maryville Saturday.

CHARLES A. LEE EXPLAINS RECENT COUNTY SURVEY

SUPERINTENDENT TELLS SCHOOL BOARDS REDISTRICTING WILL IMPROVE CONDITIONS.

That better educational facilities than can be had under the present organization will be provided if the suggestions of the recent survey of Nodaway County are followed, was the opinion expressed by Charles A. Lee, State Superintendent of Schools, in an address to school board members of the county and others interested in education, given in the auditorium of the College, Wednesday, September 28, at two o'clock.

The plan suggested by the survey provides for five senior high schools to take the place of fifteen that now exist in the county. The inequalities that now exist, Mr. Lee says, will be corrected by the formation of larger districts. The complete findings of the survey made by the State Department of Education in cooperation with the county superintendent of schools have been printed and can be obtained from the county superintendent, he told his audience and then proceeded to explain to them the purpose of the survey and the advantages of its suggestions.

The main point of the survey that Mr. Lee touched upon was the redistricting of the county in order to provide larger school districts. That fact that the population of Nodaway County has decreased 2,462 since 1910 and 3,209 persons in white school population since 1900, he considers a significant fact to be taken into consideration in redistricting. In it he sees a great need for reducing the number of schools now in the county, especially since the 132 school districts, operating 162 separate schools, cannot help being productive of many inequalities. He listed the inequalities as follows:

First: Inequality in school levy. The school levy in the county last year ranged from no levy to 160 cents on the $100 assessed valuation.

Second: Inequality in assessed valuation. The average amount of assessed valuation per pupil in the various districts in the county ranged from $2,937 to $56,957. A child living in the poorest district would derive only about 1-19 as much revenue from a given levy as would a child living in the wealthiest district.

Third: Inequality in educational expenditure per pupil. The average per pupil cost of the 1930-31 school program ranged from $33 to $269. Some children had more than 8 times as much money spent for their education as did some other children.

Commenting upon the facts revealed in the survey, the State Superintendent said that defects in the present plan of administration and organization were evident and presented them in four points:

First: Teachers of one-room schools have to teach so many classes and so many different subjects each day, and have to look after so many matters of administrative detail, that thorough work is impossible; yet, 38.4 per cent of the school children of Nodaway county attend such schools.

Second: One thousand nine hundred eighty-five children are attending in 142 one-teacher schools. The enrollment in the one-teacher schools in Nodaway county averages 14 children per school. This number is too small to (Continued on Page 4)

Northwest Missourian Has New Management

With this issue, the Northwest Missourian comes out under new management. Mr. LaMar, who has been in charge of the paper since his coming to the College, will continue to assist, though he will be relieved of the editorial work in order that he may devote more time to publicity and alumni business. The editorial management has been taken over by Miss Dykes, of the English Department. The staff will be made up of the members of a journalism club that has been organized for those students desiring training in newspaper work.

No radical changes will be made, but it is the wish of the club that improvements can be made from time to time. Members of the faculty and student body are urged to assist the club in securing the news of interest to the local group of college people, to the alumni and former students, and to the entire district the College serves. Contributions of a creative type are solicited. Suggestions for articles or of general sources of news will be welcomed. Kindly and constructive criticism is desired. For the information of all who will co-operate in supplying news for the paper, the following list of members of the club with the telephone number of each is given:

ANNUAL RUSH PARTY IS PLANTATION DANCE

The annual fall rush party of Phi Phi chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha, social sorority, was in the form of a plantation dance held at the chapter house on College Drive at eight o'clock, September 29.

The yard was brilliantly lighted with spot lights and the electric sorority emblem. In one corner was an old fashioned log cabin. Over the porch was a sign, "ASA Plantation" with sketches of negroes picking cotton. Wicker chairs, with red cushions, placed about the lawn gave a picturesque effect. During the evening mint julep was served from the cabin by a Negro mammy.

The interior of the home was decorated with Louisiana cotton balls and pickaninny dolls. The dining table was centered with a large bouquet of red and white zinnias and Japanese cranberries.

The dance programs were in red and white, each picturing a Southern belle. The program of dances consisted of many novel numbers featuring Southern melodies. The first one was the "Sweetheart Song" sung by Lucille Stewart and joined by the active members of the chapter. As "Cabin in the Cotton" was played, bolls of cotton were given as corsages. A solo dance was given by Marion Tollaksen.

To add to the illusion of plantation life, a group of Negroes, dressed in Southern costumes, came in during the evening and entertained with plantation melodies, dancing, and banjo numbers. Another feature was a watermelon weight contest conducted by Master of Ceremonies, Margaret Maxwell. Prizes were won by Dorothea Davis, Mary Catherine McKendry and Sarah Frances Rowlett.

Favors of the evening were New Orleans Pralines and Dixie Playing Cards. Refreshments carried out the sorority colors of red and white. Red bandannas were used as napkins. Little dolls, with red and white cake skirts, cherry ice, and candied figs were served as refreshments.

Sorority songs were sung during the evening and Mrs. Nellie Dawson Slegfried was the pianist for the dances. The guests included the rushees: Jean Patrick, Bethany; Lois Hawks, Hamilton; Janet and Dorothea Davis, Dearborn; Doris Stoneburner, Ravenwood; Frances Todd, Trenton; Edna Mary Monk, Burlington Junction; Bernice Miller, Savannah; Mary Catherine McKendry, St. Joseph; Erma Walker, Bigelow; Elizabeth Crawford, Mound City; Doris Logan, Dorothy Henderson, Sarah Frances Rowlett, Genie Logan, Mildred McMullin, and Beatrice Lemon, Maryville; the sponsor, Miss Nell Martindale; the patronesses: Mrs. Charles Haggard, Mrs. Clun Price, Mrs. Charles T. Bell and Mrs. Jack Rowlett; the housemother, Mrs. O. J. Willhoyte; alumna: Irene Smith, Juanita Marsh, Hildred Fitz, Winifred Todd, and Mrs. Melvin Vall; actives: Betty Hickernell, Margaret Knox, Grace Helen Goodson, Loretta Gooden, Lucille Stewart, Georgia Schultz, Margaret Dysart, Margaret Maxwell, Dorothy Whitmore, Lillian Blanchard, Marion Tollaksen, Mary Powell, Virginia Utz, Ola Slagle, Mildred Hotchkin, and Mrs. Annamae Kitt; and a pledge, Ellen Hunterston.

Y. M. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS BEGUN

1932-33 Major Objectives

1. A membership with sixty as the minimum.
2. Continuation of gospel team work on the basis of one trip a month.
3. Organization of a Hi-Y Club in the College High School.
4. Sponsoring the Third Annual International Fellowship Banquet.
5. Encouraging a free discussion of religious, social, political, and economic issues.
6. Establishing a fellowship with "Y" members in other colleges and with students abroad.

The Y. M. C. A., is now in its twenty-seventh year as an organization on the Maryville Campus. The local chapter of the "Y" has been approved by the National Board of Y. M. C. A., of the United States and Canada and the Southwest District which includes Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and Kansas.

Tomorrow (Thursday) will mark the opening of the membership drive. The "Y" has set as its goal sixty active members. A meeting of the "Y" will be held in room 205, at 7:30 o'clock tonight, at which time plans for the drive will be announced and committees named. The "Y" expects an unusually large freshman membership this year.

The "Y" will this year undertake the organization of a Hi-Y Club in the College High School with the advice and aid of Mr. Dieterich, the principal.

The next trip of the gospel team will probably be October 23. Fifteen will be slated for the trip; at least five freshmen will be on the list. The team has conducted fifty-eight services in thirty-four different towns in fourteen counties before an audience totalling 10,500 persons. This is their record since May, 1930.

The Third Annual International Fellowship Banquet will probably be held in January. Dr. Burris A. Jenkins, pastor of the Community Church in Kansas City, who spoke at the banquet last year, has informed the "Y" here that he would be available as the speaker should the committee favor his return.

A joint meeting is to be held this fall between the Maryville and Tarkio chapters of the "Y." Tarkio has co-operated with the "Y" here in a number of joint activities.

Officers and advisers of the "Y" are: President, George Walter Allen; vice-president, Wallace Culver; secretary, Richard Mickey; treasurer, Edwin Garrett; chairman of Gospel Team works, Clyde Sparks; chairman of membership, to be appointed; chairman of Hi-Y Organization, Charles Hurley; chairman of international relations, to be appointed; chairman of social activities, Raymond Mitzel; pianist, Glenn Hooper; general chairman, Dr. O. Myking Mehus; Gospel Team adviser, Stephen G. LaMar; social adviser, William E. Holdridge; membership adviser, A. J. Cauffman; program adviser, W. T. Garrett.

SOME FIGURES ON ENROLLMENT

College enrollment is a question that is interesting many people at the present time—not just the enrollment in any particular college, but enrollment in colleges in general.

A study of the enrollment in ten colleges in Missouri shows that on the whole there is but a very slight decrease over the enrollment of last year. In fact in the ten there is a decrease from last year of only 325 students. Furthermore, it shows that the decrease in every case studied has been almost entirely within the freshman classes. Colleges report that the upper grades have held their number in almost every instance.

Various theories have been expressed as to the reason for the shortage in the entering freshman group. A comparison of some figures for the last five or six years may or may not throw light upon the problem, but at any rate, they will indicate that there may be other causes than the so-called "depression" of this year to account for the decrease, slight though it may be.

The following table indicates the number of children who were graduated from the elementary grades of the country schools of Missouri for the listed years:

1928	10,481
1929	10,220
1930	10,458
1931	20,129

It is to be noted that the even numbered years show a marked decrease over the odd-numbered years.

The following table indicates the number of these children entering high school during the same years:

1927	10,951
1928	5,826
1929	10,271
1930	5,714

The same decrease of the even-numbered years over the odd-numbered years is noticeable in these figures.

The following table indicates the number of students graduated from the high schools of the state during the same years:

1927	19,928
1928	17,486
1929	21,679
1930	17,145
1931	22,289

While the decrease is not so high a proportion in these figures, the same decrease of the even-numbered years over the odd-numbered years is noticeable. The fact that these figures include the city and town schools as well as the country schools might account for the more slight decrease of even over odd years in this table than in the preceding ones.

The following table indicates the number of high school graduates entering College:

1927	7,775
1928	7,087
1929	7,414
1930	6,472

The same decrease of the even-numbered years over the odd-numbered years is noticeable in these figures as in the ones for the number of children graduated from the elementary schools of the country, for the number of these children entering high schools, and for the number of students graduated from high schools.

The question now is, What cause can be assigned for the regularity with which a decrease in all these figures appears for the even-numbered years? Nobody seems willing to say definitely that the cause is thus and so; but some who have noticed the working out of the alternation plan within the country schools of Missouri—the plan which provides that the fifth and seventh grades be taught in the odd-numbered years and the sixth and eighth in the even-numbered years—are of the opinion that this system may have a great deal to do with the matter.

Parents seem to prefer that their children take the grades in their regular order and if possible see to it that they enter school so that this is possible. If a child arrives at the fifth grade in an odd-numbered year, he takes the grades regularly; if he arrives there in an even-numbered year, he takes the sixth grade before he does the fifth. It looks probable that the alternation plan may account for the decrease in the even-numbered years of the number of children graduated from the elementary schools of the country, of the number of country children entering high school, and of the number of students graduated from high school.

If the reasoning is good, may not the same reasoning be applied in arriving at a conclusion about the cause for the decrease in the number of students entering college in the fall of 1932 an even-numbered year? It is rather remarkable, it seems, that the decrease is as slight as the study of ten Missouri colleges indicates.

markable, it seems, that the decrease is as slight as the study of ten Missouri colleges indicates.

KANSAS GORILLAS WALK ON BEARCATS

FIRST DEFEAT IN TWO YEARS IS ADMINISTERED TO BEARCATS BY PITTSBURG TEAM.

For the first time in two years the Maryville Bearcats tasted of defeat, Friday night, and incidentally got quite a bite of it at that, as the powerful Gorillas at Pittsburg, Kan., tore through the Bearcat defense for four touchdowns and a 25 to 0 win.

With ten lettermen in the starting lineup, the heavier Pittsburg line opened hole after hole for the Gorilla backs to pour through.

Kahler, right half, went over for two touchdowns in the first quarter, McCoy added another in the third, and Kuplen, Gorilla substitute, intercepted a pass and stepped off twenty-two yards for the final marker of the contest.

A Bearcat rally in the third quarter came to an end when a pass fell unclaimed over the Kansas goal line. Coach Blue Howell sent in his second team the last half and managed to hold the Maryvillians in check. Pittsburg made fourteen first downs to six for Maryville.

The starting lineups:

Maryville—Sheldon, re; Rice, rt; Sullivan, rg; Ruth, c; Smith, lg; Hedge, lt; Sloane, le; Milner, qb; Phelps, lh; Hodgkinson, rh; Parker, fb.

Pittsburg—Tims, re; Browne (c), rt; Wilson, rg; Steele, c; Murphy, lg; Enloe, lt; Russell, le; Myers, qb; Kahler, lh; McCoy, rh; Morocconi, fb.

Officials: B. T. McCreary, Oklahoma, referee; Gwinn Henry, Howard Payne, umpire; Wawles, William Jewell, head linesman.

Score by quarters:

Pittsburg— 12 0 7 6—25

Maryville will open the M. I. A. A. season next week against the Springfield Bears there.

Gertrude Sawyers, B. S. 1931, who teaches the Lasher school, was at her home in Maryville this week-end.

Beulah June West, Ravenwood, B. S. 1931, who teaches at Sheridan, was in Maryville Saturday afternoon.

STROLLER

The Stroller rode on the merry-go-round so much the last week that his head has been in almost as much of a whirl as Mildred Stuart's—oh, not a permanent whirl in either case as Mildred had been riding too.

Almost as much of a whirl it has been as Jim McClaran must have been in that day a customer came into the downtown barber shop where he works and asked for a shave just twenty minutes before Jim was due at his two o'clock class. According to Jim's story—or at least somebody's story—Jim shaved the man, walked fifteen blocks to the College, and made his two o'clock class on time! Close shave, eh?

William Yates did not make it on time to his French class but he had not failed to be prepared. Just as he entered the room, where Miss Lair was calling the roll, which was to be answered by French maxims, he heard his own name called. "Mieux vaut tard que jamais!" William responded. The Stroller got out his French book and looked it up: "Better late than never!"

So Wallace Culver's little sister Kermit Larabee Culver is in college this quarter! (See Directory of D. T. C. Women.)

"I looked for a four-leaf clover on the spur of the moment," said a certain brilliant post-graduate.

"Why didn't you try the college campus?" said the Stroller.

The Stroller missed the sophomore election last week because he was out looking for all the Tri Sigs. Couldn't find them.

The Stroller tries to keep in touch with members of the faculty and students who are off campus. He is keeping an eye on Miss White and Miss Helwig who are in Columbia attending M. U. He hears that Miss Helwig, who was suffering from a sprained ankle, fell down recently and since then has had no trouble with the sprain. He always knew Miss Helwig was a believer in fairy tales—remember the fellow who lost his eyes in a bramble bush and "jumped into another bush and scratched them in again?"

The Stroller wonders if James Robertson felt like jumping into a bramble bush when he arrived home after a date with a Dorm girl the other night to find the little girl from back home sitting there waiting for him. The sad part of this tale is his room-mate had told where he was.

the Instrumental Department of the Southwestern School of Fine Arts. His subject was "Jazz." He was assisted by Mr. Loren Crawford, violinist, and Miss Ruth Marvel, pianist, who demonstrated Indian, Negro, medieval and modern music.

One o'clock was the time scheduled for the start to Wichita, where, at twenty, the visitors were taken through Steffen's ice cream factory. Later they were entertained in recreation room of the same building, where refreshments were served.

At six o'clock Friday evening, the delegates assembled in Wichita's newest and most exclusive hotel, The Allis, for the main event of the conclave, the formal banquet. Throughout the banquet, music was furnished by a stringed trio. The favors of the evening were sterling silver bar pins on which was engraved the fraternity crest.

Saturday morning, following a business meeting, the group was taken through the Winfield Home for Feeble Minded. In the afternoon an impressive memorial ceremony honoring the organization's deceased was sponsored by the Nu Chapter, of Peru, Nebraska, after which Alpha Chapter conducted a model initiation service.

During a recreation period that followed, Miss Dorothy Neal gave several numbers on the organ in the recital room of Richardson Hall. A tea at four-fifteen concluded the activities of the fourth national conclave of Kappa Omicron Phi.

The new national officers are: President, Miss Hettie M. Anthony, of Maryville; vice-president, Miss Julia Hatz, of Warrensburg; secretary, Miss Chalsea White, of Winfield, Kansas; editor and business manager of The Distaff, Miss Gladys Bolack, of Winfield; alumni chairman, Miss Cleo Holmes of Canyon, Texas.

The chapter roll includes the following: Alpha, Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, Maryville; Beta, Central Missouri State Teachers College, Warrensburg; Gamma, Fort Hays Kansas State College, Hays; Delta, South-eastern Missouri State Teachers College, Cape Girardeau; Epsilon, Marshall College, Huntington, West Virginia; Zeta, West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon; Eta, University of Arizona, Tucson Theta, Santa Barbara State Teachers College, Santa Barbara, California; Iota, Texas College of Agriculture and Industrial Arts, Kingsville; Kappa, College of Emporia, Emporia, Kansas; Lambda, Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha; Mu, Southwestern College, Winfield, Kansas; Nu, Peru State Teachers College, Peru, Nebraska; and Xi, Ohio Wesleyan, Delaware, Ohio.

permit effective teaching or efficient operation.

"Third: Approximately 42 per cent of the children of high school age in the county are living in districts which offer no high school program.

"Fourth: Many of the present school buildings in Nodaway county are quite unsatisfactory. Of the 111 one-and-two-teacher buildings on which data were available, 72 have satisfactory lighting, 95 have approved heating and ventilating systems, 68 have approved toilets.

The lack of improved roads in some localities, Mr. Lee recognized as one of the greatest problems to be met by any system of enlarging districts and advised the people of the county to take consideration of logical school centers when planning a road building program for the future. He tried to make it plain that the survey staff did not recommend the transportation of children over roads known to be impassable during part of the year but that it had in mind a program that could be worked out successfully over a period of years. The idea is to allow the present organization of a district to remain until it can be placed upon a good road leading to one of the educational centers to be established.

The question of taxation, the speaker dwelt upon at rather great length, quoting many figures and finally arriving at the conclusion that the State must contribute a larger amount to public education or the schools will have to take a backward step.

Mr. Lee closed his speech with a comparison between the old consolidation law and the present new plan of optional country redistricting. The old system failed, he said, for many reasons. The principal ones being:

"1. It permitted the organization of too small a district. Of course the taxes were high as a result and this led to dissatisfaction.

"2. Too much gerrymandering was done in laying out the districts. The shape of many districts is conclusive proof of this fact.

"3. The district was not formed on a definite plan. More of a hit or miss proposition.

"4. No survey of the entire county was made. The educational interests of the proposed district were not studied in comparison to the needs of the whole county.

"5. Rural districts were 'gobbled' up by a small town or village. This led to unrest. Litigation was started. Many districts have spent large sums in legal battles."

In support of the new plan he offered the following as being reasons for its justification:

"1. It guarantees that when districts are formed they will be large enough to maintain an efficient school.

"2. No gerrymandering can be done. A plan will be laid out for the entire county.

"3. A survey of the entire county is made. The educational interests of each section are determined.

"4. No coercion can be used. Each district will remain as it is until a majority of the voters of that district vote to make a change. After the county redistricting board makes its report all enlarged districts in a county must be made according to the board's recommendations."

DR. MEHUS WRITES ON DISARMAMENT

PUBLISHES ARTICLE IN SEPTEMBER "HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER," A JOURNAL OF EDUCATION.

"Disarmament or—Another Slaughter" an article in the September "High School Teacher" was written by Dr. O. Myking Mehus of the Social Science Department. This magazine is a national journal of secondary education, published in Columbus, Ohio.

In this article Dr. Mehus traces the close relationship that exists between war and armaments. He quotes several world statesmen who declare that peace will never come through large armies and navies, but that peace can be secured only through a drastic disarmament program entered into by the nations of the world.

"The failure of militarism in the past is clearly apparent," Dr. Mehus says in this article. "Between the years 1853 and 1913 the nations of Europe spent approximately $45,000,000,000 for military purposes. Today the nations are spending about five billion dollars a year for military purposes. The United States is spending over $700,000,000 annually, or more than any other country in the world.

"It is hard to justify the tremendous expense when we remember that President Hoover tells us that we are safer from foreign aggression today than we have been at any time in the past fifty years and when Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes says, 'So far as we can see into the future, the United States is not in the slightest danger from aggression. In no single power and in no possible combination of powers lies any menace to our security.'

"As we contemplate the cost of the last war in terms of money, human suffering and death, and the shattering of ideals and character, we realize that in modern war no nation wins. Every nation lost the world war. Every nation came out of it poorer in every sense of the word.

"Because of the fact that no nation can win a modern war we might have a right to insist that assurance of victory in case of war is not enough. What is needed today, if civilization is to be preserved, is peace. Our nation must be secured not merely against defeat, but we must be insured against war itself, for if war comes then the fat is already in the fire, and we lose. The only way to safeguard a nation today is to keep it out of war. Therefore, we say that the real defenders of a nation are those who strive unceasingly for better understanding among nations to the end that peace may be preserved and that civilization may not be destroyed."

What we need today, Dr. Mehus said is not large armies and large navies, but what we need is world understanding and world sympathy. Just as dueling between individuals has been abolished by an enlightened public opinion, so barbaric slaughter will be eliminated. Just as slavery has been abolished in all civilized nations, because it was discovered that human slavery was economically and morally unsound, so the bloody butchery called war, will be discarded. Instead of wasting seven hundred million dollars for implements of carnage and slaughter, let us rather spend it where it will insure security and protection—let us spend it in building up international friendship and good will.

"The man who is a friend of everyone needs no pistol, and the nation that is similarly situated has no need for armies and navies. As the poet says:

Were half the power that fills the world with terror,
Were half the wealth bestowed on camps and courts,
Given to redeem the human mind from error,
There were no need for arsenals or forts."
